

Another confession of extermination

Here is a photograph taken towards the end of the Turkish military operation in Dersim on July 24, 1938.

The words that written at the back of this photograph:

"The Demenan tribe was the last tribe exterminated by our brigade in the 1938 Tunceli operation. In the photograph the Demenan tribal chiefs and their tribesmen are seen after having been taken from the caves where they were hiding.

1. Commander of the Turkish Army Brigade (Lt Gen)
2. Brigadier (Second Lieutenant)
3. Myself (the holder of the signature in the postcard)
4. Doctor Vehbi
5. The tribal chief Hasan the Gew
6. The tribal chief Huseyin"

This is one of the confessions of extermination.
Of course it is not the only evidence.
